DESCRIPTION OF DISHES

MILD DISHES

Malayan A special mild curry cooked with pineapple, banana and cream.

Kashmir A special mild curry, cooked with cashew nuts, banana, sultanas, lychees and ground almond powder.

Korma is a very mild dish prepared following a traditional Bengali recipe with greater use of fresh cream.

MEDIUM DISHES

Korai A medium hot, spicy and fairly dry dish cooked in specially selected oriental spices and herbs which give a unique rich flavour.

Bhuna is a spiced curry, a combination of a special blend of spices with a medium hot thick sauce.

Rogan Josh This dish is cooked in a delicately flavoured sauce with lots of tomatoes and a sprinkle of coriander.

Dupiaza A method of preparation similar to Bhuna where fresh onions are mixed with spices and fried briskly.

Sag Combination of a special blend of spices cooked together with spinach to provide a dish of medium strength and rather dry consistency as compared with normal curry dishes.

Balti One of the growing popular dishes in the U.K. Cooked in specially selected spices including fresh coriander and herbs, giving a special flavour in a medium thick rich sauce.

FAIRLY HOT DISHES

Jal Frezi Cooked with green chillies, chopped tomatoes, onion, green pepper and hot spices.

Madras A South Indian version of the dishes, having greater proportion of hot spices which lend a fiery taste to its richness.

Sri Lanka Sri Lanka curries are made with strongly flavoured spices which makes them hotter and similar to Madras but with a coconut flavour.

Pathia A combination of special blends of spices fried together to provide a dry, hot sweet and sour dish.

Dansak An ancient Parse dish; sweet, sour and fairly hot, cooked with lentils and pineapple.

VERY HOT DISHES

Vindaloo Related to the Madras but hotter in taste. It owes its name and part of its contents to the early Portuguese settlers.
